1. Under Regulation 6(5) of the Civil Aviation Authority Regulations 1991 (extract attached at Annex A), any person who has failed any test or examination which must be passed before being granted or exercising the privileges of a personnel licence, may request that the CAA reviews the conduct of the test or examination to determine whether it was properly conducted.
2. Such a review is undertaken by non-executive Members of the CAA Board who are appointed by the Secretary of State for Transport.

How do I request a review?

3. A review must be requested within 14 days after being notified of the failure.
4. The notification of failure will normally provide details on whom to contact to request a review.

What happens during the review?

5. The applicant will be offered an oral hearing. The hearing may be attended by:
 1. The Panel;

 3. The Review Panel Lawyer, who advises the Panel;
 4. The applicant;
 5. The applicant's supporters, who may include legal representative and witnesses;
 6. The relevant SARG employee(s);
 7. The SARG Lawyer, who advises the SARG employees;

6. The hearing will be based on the document bundle circulated to the parties (comprising the applicant's representations, SARG Brief and the applicant's response (if any)). The applicant has the opportunity to make oral representations, seek clarification and ask questions of the SARG employees. SARG employees will be given the opportunity to seek clarifications, comment on the oral representations and question the applicant. The last word will go to the applicant.

7. If any new information or arguments are introduced, either by the applicant or SARG employees, which were not contained within the documents, the hearing may be adjourned to allow time for all parties to consider the new issues.
8. A transcript of the hearing will be supplied to applicant.
9. If the applicant decides not to attend or be represented at the oral hearing, the review will be undertaken by the CAA Board Members based on the documents.

Hearing to be in public

10. The hearing will be in public unless either the applicant or SARG request it to be in private and the CAA Board Members are satisfied that it may be held in private in accordance with the provisions of Regulation 6(7A) of the Civil Aviation Authority Regulations (see below).

The decision

11. The Panel must decide whether the examination or test was properly conducted. The Panel is not in a position to decide whether the examinee should have passed or failed. If the Panel decides that the examination or test was not properly conducted, the only consequence can be that the applicant is entitled to a free retest. The Panel may order the failure to be expunged from the applicant's record.
12. The applicant will be informed, in writing, of the decision and the reasons for it, normally within 7 to 10 days of the hearing.

Publication of the decision

13. Normally, decisions will be published in full on the CAA website, including the name of the person or organisation concerned.
14. Two years after the hearing, the report will be disidentified.
15. After a further three years (so five years after the hearing), the report will be removed from the website.
16. Where a hearing has been held in private, there will be redacted any material referring to the matters in respect of which the decision to hold the hearing in private had been based.

17. In addition, representations may be made by an appellant, at the hearing or separately, putting forward reasons why, exceptionally, the decision should not be published in full. Such representations will be considered by the CAA Board Members and their determination notified to the appellant.
